

classes and services.

Similarly, the student's registration will be suspended upon the receipt by the University of a returned check given in payment of charges associated with registration or payment of any delinquency owed to the University from a prior semester. If the returned check is not redeemed within 10 days, the student's registration shall be cancelled. The student whose registration is thus cancelled shall remain liable for the charges for services or goods availed to, or consumed by, the student as may have occurred or accrued through the date of withdrawal caused by the cancellation. A student seeking reinstatement after this cancellation shall pay a $50 reinstatement fee.
