

RATES OF BOARD

Board and room in private and approved boarding houses may be had at from $25 to $30 per month.

EXPENSES

Matriculation and Student Activity Fee.—There are no tuition charges, but the College will collect a matriculation fee of $12 per term of twelve weeks. This fee includes the privilege of the library, laboratory, student entertainment, student publications, etc. A laboratory deposit fee may be required to cover breakage.

Diploma Fee.—A diploma fee of one dollar is payable on graduation.

Delayed Registration Fee.—Late entrants will pay a delayed registration fee of one dollar.

BOOKSTORE

The College will maintain a bookstore at which students may buy textbooks at publishers' list prices. The bookstore will buy, at reasonable prices, second hand text-books.

REGISTRATION

Students are required to register in person each term on the days set aside in the catalogue for registration.

LATE REGISTRATION

Those who register after the appointed dates may do so on the following conditions: (1) all late entrants must pay a fine of one dollar; (2) students entering after the second week of any term must either pass examinations upon the back work of the course they wish to take or register for an amount of work reduced below the normal at the discretion of the President. Students entering more than a week after classes begin may have their work reduced at the discretion of the President. After the fifteenth calendar day of any term of the regular session or the eighth calendar day of the summer session, a student may enter the college only at the discretion of the President.

CHANGE OF COURSE

Students should make their schedules after careful deliberation, and a schedule once made and approved will not be changed except for imperative reasons, and on the written permission of the President. After the first week students must pay a fee of one dollar in order to have a course changed.

STUDY THE CATALOGUE

Going to college should be the result of deliberate planning, not hit or miss guesswork. Therefore, students should study the catalogue and make up their minds definitely as to the course of study they wish to pursue. They can get special advice from the teaching staff of the department.
