TUITION, FEES, AND DEPOSITS

The fees at Texas state colleges are fixed within statutory limitations by the Board of Regents. For Stephen F. Austin State College, the fees discussed below have been established by the Board.

All students attending the college full-time during the regular semesters will pay a $50.00 tuition fee, a $30.00 student service fee, and an $8.00 building use fee; and in addition, those taking certain laboratory courses will pay a $2.00 laboratory fee for each such laboratory course and those taking individual instruction courses will pay $10.00 a semester credit hour for said course. Students taking partial schedules may use the following table to determine all their fees except laboratory and individual instruction fees, which will be as listed above.

General Property Deposit

All students will put up a General Property Deposit of $10.00 against any damages, library fines, driving or parking fines, etc. This deposit may be withdrawn only upon statement of completion of college career.

Students' Resident Status

Students who are non-residents in the State of Texas are charged additional tuition in accordance with the state law.

Section 1, Subsection (e), Article 2654c, Vernon's Civil Statutes, provides in part as follows:

"A non-resident is hereby defined to be a student of less than twenty-one (21) years of age, living away from his family and whose family resides in another state, or whose family has not resided in Texas for twelve (12) months immediately preceding the date of registration; or a student of twenty-one (21) years of age or over who resides out of the state or who has not been a resident of the state twelve (12) months immediately preceding the date of registration."

"Individuals who have come from without the state and who register in an educational institution prior to having resided in the state for a period of twelve (12) months shall be classified as 'non-resident students,' and such 'non-resident student' classification shall be presumed to be correct as long as the residence of such individual in the state is during their attendance at educational institutions, regardless of whether such individuals have become qualified voters, registered motor vehicles and paid personal property taxes thereon, obtained Texas drivers' licenses, or
