

dents will be required to take The American College Tests for predicting the applicant's success or failure in class work. Should the applicant's scores on these admission tests and other data indicate that he may not be successful in academic work on the college level, he will be given special advisement as to the conditions under which he may enter Stephen F. Austin State College.

The College Calendar, which appears near the front of this Bulletin, lists the dates of registration for the various terms. Inquiries about registration procedures should be addressed to the Office of the Registrar.

Students must register in person on the dates designated unless they are detained for good reason. Those registering late must pay a late registration fee.

A requirement of registration for freshmen is the Orientation Program, conducted by the Division of Guidance, to acquaint students with the College and to assist them in making a proper start. A part of the Orientation Program is a series of psychological tests given for guidance purposes. Details about this program may be obtained at the Office of the Director of Guidance.
